Mission Sunday

This week is mission Sunday. Let us pray for the mission undertaken by the Church. As Christians we have a duty to support missions spiritually and financially.

All Souls Day

On November 2 we celebrate all souls day. Our Christian tradition reminds us of praying for the departed souls in our families. Visiting the cemetery and praying for beloved ones are found in our tradition. Therefore we have two masses on all souls day. The first mass will be at St. Aloysius 9am and the second mass will be at St. Aloysius 7pm. After the first mass at 9am we will proceed to St. Aloysius cemetery for prayer and blessing. All those who can make it are welcome. we have envelop for all souls day, please collect them from back of the Church and write names of the departed souls in your family and return it before November 2.

HONORING OUR VETERANS SULLIVAN COUNTY PTAF

Sullivan PTAF, The Sullivan County Pallottine Teenage Federation youth group, would like to honor the Veterans in our Parishes. For years, men and women have enlisted in the military to fight for our country's freedom. After their service, they have the honor to hold the title of Veteran. Recognizing the contributions of our Veterans is very important to us. All gave some and some gave all, and we need to honor them for this. "Serving Our Veterans" is a day for us to serve the brave people who have sacrificed so much for our freedom.

The Veterans and their families in all our Parishes are cordially invited to attend a Mass at 4:30 pm on Saturday, November 10th at Immaculate Conception, 6317 Route 42, Woodbourne, New York. Refreshments will follow. If you can join us on November 10th, please register by calling (845)292-9100 no later than November 2nd and tell us how many will be attending.

Reflection on Sunday's readings

Central theme: Today's Scripture readings describe leadership as the sacrificial service done for others and offer Jesus as the best example. They also explain the servant leadership of Jesus, pinpointing service and sacrifice as the criteria of greatness in Christ's Kingdom.

Scripture lessons summarized: The first reading is a Messianic prophecy taken from the Fourth Servant Song in the second part of the Book of the Prophet Isaiah. It tells how the promised Messiah will save mankind by sacrificing himself as the atonement for our sins. Jesus has done this sacrificial service of love for us as the Suffering Servant by giving his life on the cross as an offering for sin, interceding for us and taking our punishment on himself. The second reading, taken from the letter to the Hebrews, tells us that, as a God-man and mediator-High Priest, Jesus has offered a fitting sacrifice to God his Father by offering himself as ransom to liberate us from the slavery of sin. In the time of Jesus, ransom was the price paid to free someone from slavery. Sometimes the ransomer offered himself as a substitute for the slave, as Jesus did. The reading also speaks of a high priest who is able to sympathize with us in our weakness because he has been tested in every way, though sinless, and so we can "confidently" hope for God's mercy. Today's Gospel explains how Jesus has accomplished his mission of saving mankind from the slavery of sin by becoming the "Suffering Servant." Here, Jesus challenges his followers to become great by serving others with sacrificial agape love: "Whoever wishes to be great must be a servant." Jesus commands us to liberate others as he has freed all of us, by giving ourselves to them in loving and humble service.

Life Messages: We are challenged to give our lives in loving service to others. As Christians, we are all invited to serve others – and to serve with a smile! We are challenged to drink the cup of Jesus by laying down our lives in humble, sacrificial service for others, just as Jesus did. The best place to begin the process of service by "self-giving," is in our own homes and workplaces. When parents sacrifice their time, talents, health and blessings for the welfare of others in the family, they are serving God. Service always involves suffering, because we can't help another without some sacrifice on our part. We are rendering great service to others also when we present them and their needs before God daily in our prayers.
